

- ❖ English is the most spoken language in the world. One in five people can speak or at least understand English!
- ❖ English is the language of tourism , travelling abroad and communicating with foreigners will make it much easier. Not only that: knowing English allows you to break down the barriers of communication and discover new cultures.
- ❖ English is the language of the web, 80% of online news sites use the English language. Knowing how to speak and understand English will allow you to watch foreign TV channels and read newspaper articles or books from other countries.
- ❖ English is the official language of 53 countries. Lots of people to talk to and get to know!
- ❖ Speaking English increases your chances, whatever you do in life, knowing how to speak great English will multiply your opportunities.

- ❖ English is the language of commerce. 70% of employers think it is one of the most important requirements when applying or when interviewing.
- ❖ Travelling is much easier with a good knowledge of English, for example if you ever get lost in a city abroad, you can ask information.
- ❖ It opens your mind, knowing language structures other than your mother tongue makes you smarter, and not only that, your mind will remain active and lively for all life!
- ❖ Gives you access to some of the most famous universities, to enter Harvard, Yale, Oxford or Cambridge you must be fluent in English, and they will ask you to take a test to see if you have the required level to come and study there. The higher your level, the more chances you will have to choose your university.
- ❖ For fun, learning a language is not always a boring task, it can be done in a fun way! Studying another language can make you feel happy and satisfied that you have managed to learn something new and useful.

